

Cathryn “Cece” Matot

Owner and Co-President

Cathryn “Cece” Matot is owner and Co-President of Matot, Inc. (www.Matot.com), a fourth-generation innovator and manufacturer of commercial grade lift solutions for commercial, healthcare, institutional and residential environments.

In her role, Cece is responsible for overall profit and growth of the company; is the lead team member for mergers and acquisitions; was responsible for forming a manufacturing alliance with a leading material handling company; and oversees all aspects of Matot’s strategic marketing initiatives including advertising, Web site development, public relations, trades shows and promotions. In addition, she develops new distributorships comprised of both start-up businesses and established elevator companies.

Cece joined Matot in 1986 and, throughout her career at the company founded by her great-grandfather in 1888, has taken on increasing levels of responsibility. During her Matot tenure, Cece has served as a production scheduler, plant manager, purchasing and inventory control manager, information systems director and vice president of marketing. Prior to joining Matot, Cece was a petroleum geologist focusing on U.S. oil and gas exploration.

Cece is a member of the National Association of Elevator Contractors and the Chicago Elevator Association; is on the Board of Directors of Project Exploration; and is a former Board of Governors & Founding Family member of the Loyola Family Business Center.

Cece holds a Master of Business Administration degree in marketing from Loyola University, Chicago, and a Bachelor’s Degree in geology from The Colorado College, Colorado Springs, Col. She lives in Chicago with her husband and children.